"Mortimer Collins at his best. Chatty, learned, breaking off into a quotation of his own and other poet's verses, into odd bits of animal and bird lore, into a melange of gossip about dinners and churches, and inns and classical writers, and High Toryism. Two most agreeable volumes for a winter's fireside or a summer's day."

Graphic.

"Lovers of Mortimer Collins' writings (and they are many) will have a rare treat in the two volumes lovingly edited by Prof. Tom Taylor and Mrs. Mortimer Collins. As you read it it is just like listening to a friend who has the gift of saying, not one good thing now and then, but one at every pause or turn in the road."

The Times.

"A series of humorous legends, illustrated by three such men as Cruikshank, Leech, and Tenniel—what can be more tempting?"

"Abundant in humour, observation, fancy; in extensive knowledge of books and men; in palpable bits of character, exquisite grave irony, and the most whimsical indulgence in point of epigram. We cannot open a page that is not sparkling with its wit and humour, that is not ringing with its strokes of pleasantry and satire."

"The Munster Circuit" becomes a very lively volume indeed when it

PROSPECTUS.

This Company has been formed for the purpose of establishing a Circulating Library at the West End of London, offering exceptional advantages to the Subscribers and Shareholders.

A provisional Agreement has been entered into on behalf of the Company for the granting to the Company a 30 years' Lease of the noble and desirable block of buildings adjoining the Grosvenor Gallery, in a portion of which the business of the Grosvenor Restaurant has already been established. And the Agreement also provides for the purchase of the valuable Plant and Furniture belonging thereto.

A copy of the said Agreement is deposited at the Offices of the Company, and will be produced to any person desiring to see the same.

These Premises are second to none in London for carrying out the objects of the Company, and the plan of the building, showing the position of the various rooms, and how it is intended to utilise them, will be found attached hereto.

The objects of the Grosvenor Library are fully set forth in the Memorandum of Association, but the following deserve special attention, as exhibiting the advantages that will accrue to the different classes of Subscribers.

1st.—To establish a Circulating Library, with a constant supply of all new books in every branch of English Literature, including the various Periodicals and Magazines, and all new Foreign and Colonial Books of interest and importance.

2nd.—To provide a Library of selected and Standard Works in various branches of knowledge, which shall be always available for reference.

3rd.—To provide spacious Reading and Writing Rooms, amply stored with all the leading Newspapers and Reviews, both English, Foreign, and Colonial.

4th.—To provide Dining and Refreshment Rooms, where Dinners and Luncheons will be served in the style of first-class London Clubs.

5th.—To provide commodious Cloak Rooms for the reception of parcels, &c., together with Furnished Lavatories, Retiring and Dressing Rooms.

6th.—To book seats for all the London Theatres, Concerts, and other places of Entertainment: which will be done by telegraphic communication with the Theatres.

7th.—To provide a Circulating Library of all New Instrumental and Vocal Music.

8th.—To provide for the sale of all new books, and for the disposal, at exceptionally advantageous rates, of the surplus stock of such works of permanent interest as have passed out of circulation.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:—

Subscribers of the annual value of Three Guineas shall have the full benefit of all the advantages offered by the Institution, including the use of the Reference Library, the Reading and Writing Rooms, &c., together with the right to six volumes from the Circulating Library.

Family Tickets for Country Subscribers, with the right to Fifteen Volumes from the Circulating Library, Five Guineas per annum.

Subscribers who wish only to make use of the Circulating Library will be received on the same terms as are now offered by existing Libraries, of which full particulars may be obtained by application at the Office of the Company.

It is believed that the exceptional privileges offered to Subscribers will be specially acceptable to dwellers in the country, or large provincial towns, whose business constantly brings them to London, and who will find in the Grosvenor Library nearly all the advantages of a first-rate London Club.

The want of such an Institution, based upon a large and liberal conception of the public requirements, has been long felt and acknowledged, and the demand for an adequate supply of the works of Contemporary Literature is established beyond dispute by the success of those existing Circulating Libraries, which do not, however, offer the advantages presented by the Grosvenor Library.

Having regard to the numerous advantages offered to the Subscribers, the large amount of support promised by those who have already invested in the undertaking, the favourable opinion of Authors, Publishers, Literary and Scientific men who have been communicated with and consulted as to the advisability and necessity of establishing such an Institution, the Directors anticipate such a body of Subscribers as to justify them in the belief that the undertaking will be a commercial success.

No promotion fees whatever will be paid, the only expenses incurred being those incidental to the formation of the Company.

The only Contract that has been entered into is an Agreement dated the 17th day of December, 1879, between Sir Coutts Lindsay of the one part, and Alexander Rivington, for himself and on behalf of the Company therein stated to be about to be formed under the name of the Grosvenor Library Limited, of the other part.

Prospectuses and Forms of Application for Shares may be obtained at the London and County Bank, 21, Hanover-square, or any of its Branches, the Solicitors and Auditors, and also at the Offices of the Company in New Bond-street.
